MORE THAN 100 IN MIDWINTER CLASS GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Graduation Exercises Held for Grammar School Students; Impressive Ceremony

One hundred and three grammar school diplomas were awarded Saturday night at the high school following the midwinter graduation exercises.

Members of the graduating class marched into the auditorium and occupied front seats. The girls were attired in white and wore red ties. The hall was well filled with relatives and friends of the graduates.

The Pacific Electric is justified in making the recent rate increases, according to the decision of Miss Mona C. Gardner, W. D. Root and Attorney Hartley Shaw, after considerable deliberation, in judging the debate, which was the principal portion of the program.

The affirmative was upheld by Bonnie Jean Lockwood, Consuelo Mirano, Viola Hall, Ross Russell and Eugene Brecht. The negative was supported by Barbara Kranz, Thelma Barker, Robert Bungay, Thelma Turner, and Wendell Beauchamp. Dugald Blue introduced the speakers and acted as chairman.

Wanted At High School

W. D. Hibben, president of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas. In no uncertain terms he urged each member of the class to be sure to enroll in high school at once.

"We want you to know that we appreciate the years of earnest effort that you have put in," declared Mr. Hibben. "The last war showed that 25 per cent of the men living in this country are scarcely able to read the English language. Every one of you has risen above that 25 per cent. But we don't want you to look upon this diploma as the end of your education.

"Let no one persuade you that it doesn't matter if you don't attend high school. Four years more and you will be able to compete with men and women with education and training. If any of you should fail to add that four years to your education either by day or night school, you will be absolutely certain to regret it in later days.

"These diplomas that we present you with tonight carry with them

LUCY STROTHERS STUDENT LEADER

Named President at Election at High School; Names of Other Officers

A spirited election at the Glendale Union high school last week resulted in the selection of Miss Lucy Strothers as president of the Student Body.

Owing to the eleventh hour withdrawal of Paul Hutchinson, who was running for re-election, her only opponent was Dale Woods, secretary for boys in last semester's cabinet. The race was close and the victor won only by a few votes.

By a big majority, Paul Holland won the office of secretary of assembly over John Richardson and Loren Patrick.

Walter Sullivan was named as the new editor of "The Explosion" defeating Herbert Bruck for the position.

Miss Fern Peters was elected secretary of finance, defeating Warren May for this cabinet portfolio.

Miss Dorothy Peart was selected secretary of state. William Miller and Bryant Small also ran for this office.

As secretary of the boys' athletic activities Fred Stofft defeated Horatio Butts and for secretary of girls' athletic activities Miss Dorothy Cotton defeated Miss Corrine Heacock.

A separate election will be held this week to select a secretary of boys and a secretary of girls for the cabinet.

Victor Colburn was elected secretary of debating.

Miss Margaret Frazee Is Guest of Honor

The members and friends of the K. K. K. club entertained with a surprise party Friday night in honor of Miss Margaret Frazee, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Frazee of 211 West Milford street, are planning to move to San Diego. Music, cards and other games provided diversion for the evening, at the close of which refreshments were served.

Those present included Miss Margaret Frazee, Miss Garnet Peters, Miss Fern Peters, Miss Myra Johns, Miss Edith Schuyler, Miss Loise Schuyler, Miss Marie Oliver, Miss Millicent Alvord, Lloyd Culver, Bob Howlett, James Thomson, Boyd Taylor, Wm. Taylor and Philip Davis.

Pipe Organ Motor Stolen; Music for Service Via Hand

Hand power organ accompaniment featured the services at St. Mark's Episcopal church here yesterday.

Some miscreat stole the motor for the pipe organ, according to a report filed with the police department by John Trotter of 801 Orange Grove avenue.

It took several minutes to discover the difficulty with the music and several hurried telephone calls established the fact that there was a way of pumping the organ by hand.

The police beiieve some inventive young genius appropriated the motor for a wireless apparatus.

GOVERNOR RECEIVES WARNING, STATES CITY MANAGER

State Executive Hears Protests of People and Urges R. R. Board to Act, Claim

Governor W. D. Stephens' instructions to the California State Railroad Commission to re-open the public utility question, both in regard to telephone and street car rates and service, was the cause this morning of much delight by City Manager W. H. Reeves.

"I am mighty glad to see that," declared Mr. Reeves commenting on the governor's decision. "He has been told down here that he was beaten for re-election if he doesn't do something quick. He says that he hasn't any control, but he can get some all right."

According to Mr. Reeves, Governor Stephens has accepted the local complaint that it is "not just to burden lucrative lines with high rates in order to make up a fair return upon lines barely paying operating costs and that gift property should not be given its full present value when fixing rates for a profitable operating line."

Governor Stephens in his communication to the railroad commission says he has received "vigorous protests" against the recent decisions.

Has Ear To Ground

Governor Stephens recently spent about ten days in Southern California. It is presumed that he heard a great deal about what people think of the commission's decisions. Hence, it is presumed, his letter to the commission.

Mr. Reeves is taking steps to obtain accurate information in regard to the sworn valuation of the Pacific Electric before the railroad commission and the tax assessors.

"We will make a case before we get through with this thing," stated Mr. Reeves confidently.

L. F. James of 1502 Rock Glen avenue has written the following letter to Mr. Reeves.

"I have noticed with some concern the fight that you are putting up against the Pacific Electric Railroad company concerning changes in rates of fares to Glendale. Being a citizen of Glendale and interested I presume that you have studied the case from all angles in order to meet the railroad company's arguments but there is a little matter connected with all proceedings of this kind that may have been overlooked.

"The railroad company have succeeded in getting the railroad commissioners to place a total valuation on the property the figures of which I have not before me at this moment. But at the time of reading the figures in the papers my opinion was that the valuation was exceedingly high.

"What I wish to suggest is that you procure from the state board of control or the state board of equalization the assessed valuation by the board of said property and, if the amount does not correspond with the valuation that they are now putting on the property, then you have a fighting proposition.

"There may be a great descrepancy between the assessed valuation and the valuation that they have made to the board of railroad commissioners."

Local Elks Construct Home to Aid Widow

The charity mission which had been planned to take place a week ago yesterday but was postponed on account of the rain materialized yesterday when a group of thirty members of the Glendale lodge of Elks No. 1289, including mechanics, carpenters and other willing workers, motored to Tujunga and built a four-room house for a widow with several children, whose home was burned last fall. The relief committee, under the direction of Stanley Frentz and Arthur H. Dibbern, was in charge. The house was completed with the exception of some interior finish, and the family will now be able to move in. Doors and windows were put in place and the exterior of the house was stained.

Tonight's meeting of the local Elks' lodge, of which Alfred Priest is exalted ruler, will begin the nomination of officers of that organization for the ensuing year. These nominations will continue during February meetings and election will take place the first Monday in March.

NEW PLATFORM FOR CHURCH ENDORSED BY METHODISTS

Morning and Evening Given Over to Discussion of Recent Conference

A national platform was unanimously endorsed yesterday morning and evening by the First Methodist church of Glendale.

Both services were devoted to a discussion of the recent area conference in Fresno, which was an echo of the convention held in Detroit, called especially to map out a program for Methodism in world affairs. This conference was attended by Dr. C. M. Crist and Arthur G. Lindley.

Reports from last week's conference at Pasadena were submitted to the congregation in brief talks by the delegates from the local church. Mrs. C. D. Lusby discussed evangelism: Dr. Harry V. Brown, education; Carl M. Seitter, Home Missions; Mrs. C. M. Crist, W. F. Tower, Stewardship; Mrs. F. F. Geiger, Woman's Home Missionary Society; Mrs. A. P. Torrey, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society; Mrs. Charles Starkey, Ladies' Aid; Arthur G. Lindley, Brotherhood; G. E. Murphy, Epworth League; A. W. Tower, Sunday School.

New Unit System

A new unit system for securing church memberships was outlined by Mrs. Harry V. Brown and endorsed by Dr. C. M. Crist. This divide Glendale into twenty districts each in charge of a leader. The families in each unit are pledged to do all in their power to enlarge the sphere of influence of the church.

C. D. Lusby reported the "findings" of the Fresno conference, which form the national platform of the church. A few extracts from this document follow:

"The present world conditions compel the attention and challenge the co-operation of every believer in the gospel of Jesus Christ. We do urge upon our people everywhere that they strive to give rather than to get; that they ask for nothing which is within their power to provide for themselves but that, on the contrary, they seek by every sacri-

M. B. Towman Returns From Bout With Snow

M. B. Towman, who is in charge of the Glendale branch of the Automobile Club of Southern California returned Saturday night with L. E. Mock, who is in charge of registration of licenses, from a trip to Lancaster and other Antelope valley points.

Mr. Towman inspected the roads in the vicinity and reports that twenty miles north of Saugus the snow is several feet deep in the hills. Driving through the slush of Bouquet canyon is very difficult and dangerous.

When Mr. Towman awoke in Lancaster Saturday morning, after a grueling day's drive, the thermometer registered 2 degrees below zero.

"I could hardly believe I was still in Los Angeles county," he commented.

Local Legion Members' In Basketball Practice

The first basketball practice of the season for the members of the local American Legion post will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the high school gymnasium. Those who have been called to report for practice include Johnny Dewar, F. A. Crooker Henry Prussing, Fred Farner, C. L Edwards, T. R. Goodman, C. G Gibbs, Sid Simon, C. M. Salinas, L. G. Jones, L. G. Fortier, Chalmers Day, W. H. Bunker and H. E. Wheelon. At tonight's practice a captain of the team will be selected.

James M. Rhoades Is in 'Home-Made' Shirt

James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, invited George B. Karr to establish his Baldwin Shirt factory in Glendale.

"Establish your factory and we'll buy your shirts," said the secretary.

Karr came back today ready to do business—his shirt factory is ready to go in its own building, corner San Fernando Road and Brand boulevard. Rhoades paid.

EASTSIDE CLUB TO MEET

The Eastside Welfare association will meet tonight in the Broadway school at 7:45 o'clock, according to an announcement by J. C. Sherer, chairman. A general discussion of improvements to be made in that rapidly developing section of the city is scheduled.

MRS. MOYSE'S MOTHER ILL

On account of the critical illness of her mother in Los Angeles, Mrs. Ethel Flood Moyse was not able to take care of her duties as vice principal of Glendale Union high school this morning. Principal George U. Moyse, also was at the bedside.

T. M. BARRETT GIVEN LARGE PARTY FOR 80TH BIRTHDAY

Various Patriotic Organizations Have Representatives at Anniversary Gathering

The reception given at the residence of T. M. Barrett, 364 West Wilson avenue, Saturday, February 4, in honor of Mr. Barrett's eightieth birthday, was one of the social events of the season, and was largely attended by the various patriotic organizations, there being a goodly representation from the following societies: N. P. Banks Post No. 170, Glendale & N. P. Bank W. R. C., Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18, Daughters of Veterans, Glendale Helen Jean Cristy Tent, Daughters of Veterans, Los Angeles, Columbia Circle Ladies of G. A. R., Los Angeles, Monotor Circle Ladies of G. A. R., Pomona, Jessie Benten Tent, Daughters of Veterans, Los Angeles, Rosecrans Camp, Sons of Veterans, Los Angeles, and Isabel Barrett Tent No. 25, Daughters of Veterans, Pomona, Calif., also, the gathering was graced by the presence of Mrs. Mary A. Snyder, president of Stanton W. R. C. There were also many friends from a distance and surrounding towns, many of whom were long-standing friends and old neighbors.

Among the local guests were the Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, the Rev. Louis Tinning, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, Rev. and Mrs. Mottern, Seymour G. Smith and many others.

Each separate organization sent a special greeting in the form of beautiful flowers, potted plants and many beautiful mottoes. These were also interspersed with individual gifts and cards.

Attractive Decorations

The home was appropriately decorated in pine boughs and acacia blossoms, the color scheme being white and gold on a background of greenery, while an American flag was gracefully draped across the end of the living room. Refreshments were served in the form of cake and punch. The large and beautiful birthday cake fittingly decorated in white and gold was the handiwork of Mrs. Jenny Phillips.

The soft, sweet music, consisting of many of the old familiar melodies, was furnished by Miss Veda Knapp.

The reception, which lasted till a late hour in the evening, was one continuous flow of pleasure for Mr. Barrett and long to be remembered by himself and his family. He was assisted in receiving by his daughter and her husband. Dr. and Mrs. Holmes G. Brown of Pomona and his daughter Isabel, who resides with him.

The loving affection of his many friends will linger long in the memory of Mr. Barrett, who is now eligible to the octogenarian club.

Cobweb Party Given at J. H. Searles Residence

A group of forty children were entertained at a cobweb party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. J. H. Searles, 643 North Maryland avenue, who was assisted as hostess by Mrs. R. L. McCourt, Mrs. A. H. Chapman, Mrs. F. H. Roberts and Mrs. W. S. Ingram. The Virginia reel and various other games were enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served. Special guests of the evening included Miss Vera Sinclair, Mrs. Hirshfelt of Portland, and Jefferson Searles.

The young people invited included Dorothy Burch, Mahala Winchert, Alice Whittaker, Elizabeth Walker, Kathryn Stanley, Guilia Smith, Estella Roberts, Ruth Ranes, Alberta Plasterer, Helen Orr, Madalyn Montgomery, Marion Letts, Frances Kulp, Wilma Kulp, Gladys Jones., Jean Ingram, Leona Hunt, Dorothy Humans, Mabel Horner, Verna Harrower, Lucile Forrest, Evelyn Edwards, Virginia Cribbs, Ruth Cox, Nyla Chapman, Lucille Bruner, Margaret Allewelt, Frances Bourne, Lyle Wheeler, Wallace Trau, Leighton Taylor, Milo Sherrick, Homer Searles, Frederick Shierholz, Dewey McCourt, Frank Gatto, Charles Flynn, Louis Doty, Charles Buss and Charles Beamon.

H. J. Thatcher Family Snowbound 3 Days

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thatcher and little daughter, Joe L., who have returned to their home in Compton after a short visit with Mr. Thatcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Thatcher of Glendale, were among the many unfortunate motorists who were snowbound for three days on the Ridge route, during the recent storm.

The Thatchers had motored to their former home, San Jose, for a visit, and were en route for home when caught by the storm. They tell many interesting tales of their experience. It would take eight or ten hours to release one machine, but all would work enthusiastically until the whole party could move. Every one was in high spirits and enjoying the novelty, although terribly uncomfortable. The little daughter, Joe L., was the only one of this family that contracted any cold, and that was not serious.

Ralphs Glendale Market Will Be Opened Tuesday in Home Specially Built For It

New Glendale home of Ralphs Grocery Company. The formal opening will take place tomorrow. The building is located at West Broadway and Orange. All departments in the market are owned by Ralphs Company. The second floor is taken by the I. O. O. F. and a number of offices.

Ralphs Glendale Market will open for business tomorrow morning in its own new building at 201 West Broadway, corner of Broadway and Orange. As in all other Ralphs' stores, every department is owned and operated by Ralphs Grocery company. Today the doors were opened and clerks at work familiarizing themselves with the large stock which was moved in last week.

The building is one of the largest in Glendale and built by the firm for its specific needs. On the first floor is housed the grocery, Ernest Elliott's hardware and Kerjaard & Mullaly's real estate offices. The entire second story has been leased to the local lodge, I. O. O. F. for a period of fifteen years.

In addition to large and well-equipped assembly hall, club room, banquet hall, modern kitchen, anterooms and dressing rooms there are fifteen offices, thirteen of which have a front view. These will be occupied by the Christian Science reading rooms, Miss Edith Lindsey's dancing academy, Dr. H. C. Smith and Dr. O. A. Dieterich and other tenants.

From exterior appearance the new building is one of the most imposing in the business section of Glendale. Its construction was personally supervised by Messrs. Ralphs, who have great faith in the future of this city, they say.

The market is equipped with the automatic refrigerating system and the most modern fixtures known to the trade, groceries, fresh and smoked meats, bakery goods, candies and fruits and vegetables.

One of the great advantages, it is stated, of Ralphs Markets is that a general grocery clerk will serve a customer for their entire wants of everything in the food line in all departments except fresh meat.

This makes the eighth complete market operated by Ralphs grocery company. At present the firm's employes number 525. During the holiday season many extra help are employed.

Ralphs operate an extensive delivery system using sixty-three auto delivery trucks. All deliveries for Glendale will be handled out of this new market, it is announced.

GIRL DIES FROM INJURIES IN THEATRE TRAGEDY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Miss Carolyn Upshaw, 16-year-old high school girl student and a niece of Congressman Upshaw of Georgia, died at Garfield hospital this morning, a victim of the Knickerbocker theatre crash. Her death brings the total casualty list of the disaster to 97.

ARBUCKLE'S THIRD TRIAL WILL START ON MARCH 13

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle will go on trial a third time for manslaughter here March 13. This date was fixed today by Judge Harold Louderback when the heavyweight comedian appeared before him. The date was suggested by Gavin McNab, Arbuckle's chief counsel, and concurred in by state counsel. Arbuckle, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, arranged to leave by automobile at noon for Los Angeles. He plans to remain there until shortly before his third trial opens.

ARMS PARLEY ADJOURNS; HARDING MAKES ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The arms conference passed into history at 11:15 a. m. today with the echoes of its praise as "the greatest step in history toward world peace" ringing in the ears of the chief figures in the three months' drama. The Washington conference, in its "truly great achievements" has taken the first big forward step toward the permanent outlawry of war and the establishment of universal peace and concord among nations, President Harding said today in his farewell address, delivered to the thirty-odd world statesmen who had just concluded their three months' efforts by signing the conference treaties. "The torches of understanding have been lighted," said the president, "and they ought to glow and encircle the globe." While most of the president's speech was devoted to extolling, in highest terms, the achievements of the conference and to expressing the belief that a new door in world peace history has been opened, he nevertheless included a significant warning that the world expects to see the pledges made here in Washington strictly observed. "No new standards of national honor have been sought," the president declaraed, "but the indictments of national dishonor have been drawn and the world is ready to proclaim the odiousness or perfidy or infamy."

SEARCH FOR EX-SECRETARY OF TAYLOR IS RENEWED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Find Edward F. Sands and charge him with the murder of William Desmond Taylor, or eliminate him once and for all from the investigation." Captain of Detectives David L. Adams, in charge of a score of detectives seeking Taylor's assassin, issued that order to the police homicide squad today, after a man, whose name was withheld, stated he had seen Sands near the fashionable court in which Taylor resided, shortly after the noted motion picture director was slain, presumably about 8 o'clock last Wednesday night. The new witness, whose identity is being shielded by the police, was reported to have given other information to the authorities which caused most of the detectives to again concentrate their activities on a search for the former secretary of the slain director. The informant is stated to have identified a photograph of Sands as the man observed near the Taylor bungalow. The witness was positive in his statement because he had kept the suspect under surveillance for some time, observing his actions. When he was approached, the man was said to have fled. While some of the detectives assigned to the probe were agreed today that the most probable theory in the slaying was that Taylor may have been killed for revenge, some of the sleuths adhered to a belief that the "movie" celebrity was

PLACE CORNERSTONE FOR CONSTRUCTION OF NEW CHURCH

Central Christian Folk Gather on Sunday Afternoon to Conduct Services

The cornerstone of the new Central Christian church was cemented into place yesterday afternoon following a program on the floor of the uncompleted structure in which Rev. C. A. Cole presided as master of ceremonies.

"Three years ago at the annual meeting of this church," declared Rev. Cole, "We foresaw something of the growth of this city and of this organization. We set for ourselves a three year program which included among other things a building program. About a year ago we began the actual proceedings necessary to raise the money to begin the structure. In August we were far enough along to let the contract.

"This building will cost furnished, without the pipe organ, about $75.-000. We have retained our old building, which has been used some ten or twelve years with the expectation that it shall be taken away in a few years and another unit erected there to conform with the new church."

Greeting Extended

Two hymns were sung by the choir, which is directed by Mrs. Calvin Whiting and accompanied by Miss Florence Hancock.

A dedicatory prayer was offered by Dr. W. F. Richardson of Hollywood.

Greetings from the local ministerial association were expressed by its president, Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the Congregational church, who declared he felt that he spoke not only for the other clergymen of Glendale but for their congregations as well.

"We rejoice in the work that this church is doing," asserted Rev. Calderwood. "You have done a great work in this city. We know that this is to be a beautiful church. We are glad that there is to be another church building here in the community. Glendale needs more churches. We haven't nearly enough to accom-

QUANTITY OF WINE TAKEN BY OFFICERS

Two Barrels of Liquor Seized Saturday Night; Jewelry Store Is Looted

Two barrels of wine, one full quart bottle and another flask partially emptied were seized Saturday night by Federal Officer H. C. Wesley and Patrolman Louis Nunn of the Glendale police department when they intercepted a motorcar driven by Guiseppe Casclitti and Frank Selvarezza of Los Angeles.

The automobile and contraband booze were confiscated and the two men incarcerated in cells at Fire Station No. 2 awaiting a hearing before the United States commissioner in Los Angeles. The pair claim they were moving from Los Angeles to Burbank and were taking the joywater to their new home.

It is the officers' belief that Casclitti and Selvarezza are bootleggers driven to cover by the recent activity of the prohibition agents in southern California.

Jewelry Store Looted

The Walker jewelry store at Burbank, owned by the Walker Jewelry company of this city, was looted last night by sneak thieves and $700 in rings, pins, watches and chains taken from the showcases, according to a report filed with the local police.

C. McMullen of 1508 South Glendale avenue reported that a tool chest was stolen from the job on which he is working and the police were furnished a description of the lost articles.

C. H. Hamilton sent a hurry call for officers Sunday night when he saw two boys endeavoring to steal a motorcar. He gave chase and was able to give the officers a good description of the lads.

Pays for Hurry Up Call

Unusually heavy business in traffic cases crowded Judge F. H. Lowe's calendar this morniing. Fines of varying sizes were assessed. W. P. MacMullin paid $15 on account for the Glendale Creamery company, saying:

"We got a hurry call for a bottle of milk at the Glendale Sanitarium Saturday. The speedy delivery cost 100 times the price, but it was worth it!"

FOOTHILL CLUB TO MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Glendale Foothill Improvement association will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Botsford home on Glenwood road.

CHARLES FARNHAMS HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farnham of 316 North Louise street entertained Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts of 617 East Elk avenue at dinner Sunday.

PLACE CORNERSTONE FOR CONSTRUCTION OF NEW CHURCH

modate the people who would go to church here.

"In view of the fact that you have done such splendid work in the years past, we are sure that you are going to do a much greater work in the years to come. I feel that great work will be done in this new church for the cause of Christ."

The address of the occasion was made by Dr. A. C. Smithers of Los Angeles, chairman of the erection committee for churches of the Christian denomination in the State of California, who was instrumental in inducing Rev. Cole to come to Glendale.

For Worship and Work

The commission enjoined upon his apostles to preach the gospel to all living beings was emphasized by Rev. Smithers. He commented upon the importance of the "church house" in carrying out this mission and remarked that they illustrated the wisdom and sagacity of human beings in adopting to our civilization a means by which the church was to accomplish its purpose.

"First of all the church serves as a church of worship," declared Rev. Smithers. "The church house is primarily and fundamentally a place of worship. May I say that worship is instinctively a quality of the human soul. I am glad that with the passing of years we can erect church houses which are worthy of our civilization.

"The church is not only a house of worship but a place for work, also. Worship is the act of reaching out in an attempt to conform human ideas with the divine.

"We are coming to understand anew the place of education in the work of the church. You know that the Sunday school strictly speaking isn't more than half a century old. The public school is the safety of democracy. If it is important that we make our boys and girls into stalwart citizens, how much more important that we should train them to be Christians! I am glad that Glendale has a man of Sunday school vision."

As Social Center

The church edifice as a social center also was commented upon by Rev. Smithers who laughingly remarked that he believed in "sparking parlors." He said that, if there was any place where the social side of church work should be developed, it was here in Glendale where so many residents were strangers, homesick and lonesome. A vote called by him revealed the fact that not one-fourth of those in the congregation had been in Glendale five years.

A brief address was made by Rev. C. R. Hudson of Los Angeles, state superintendent of missions.

"I am glad to have the opportunity to speak for the churches of Southern California, and bring you their greetings," declared Rev. Hudson. "I rejoice with you in the splendid progress you are making here. I bring my personal congratulations for the splendid co-operation we are receiving from your pastor. I assure you that you have a real leader here. We are all proud of the splendid work he is doing and the fine co-operation you are giving him. I congratulate you and I wish you continued success in your great program."

C. C. Chapman Speaks

C. C. Chapman of Fullerton was observed in the audience by Rev. Cole and called upon for a few words.

"Brother Cole and good and enterprising citizens of Glendale," commenced Mr. Chapman. "You have put your city on the map. You are putting it over the rest of us, I am obliged to admit.I don't know where you all came from."

Mr. Chapman stated that he had been present when the old church was dedicated and mentioned the fact that some of the elders had thought it impossible to raise the money to build it. He concluded by complimenting the faith evidenced by the congregation in planning the new church.

As a member of the city council, S. A. Davis, who happened to be in the congregation was called upon for an extemporaneous speech. He said he would be very proud of the new structure because it was on Colorado boulevard, a well traveled highway, where many could admire it. Then he added that he lived on Colorado boulevard himself. Mr. Davis commented upon the fact that he had been privileged to contribute to the building fund despite the fact that he is not a member of the Christian church.

Dr. Frederick Burnham of St. Louis, president of the United Christian Missionary Societies, who was introduced as the individual who would hold the rank of moderator under an ecclestial government, remarked taht he felt quite at home and didn't suppose titles really counted for much among the apostles.

"It has been my privilege twice to build churches and I have always looked forward to the time when the cornerstone should be laid as an auspicious occasion," remarked Rev. Burnham. "It is a significant thing to build a church. A church stands for something in the community. Any church stands for something. Anybody, who passes knows that this building isn't going to be a post-office, that it isn't going to be a dance hall and that it isn't going to be a moving picture theatre. He knows that this building is a church and a church stands for faith. It means that somebody believes in God."

Preceding the actual placing of the cornerstone, Rev. C. R. Cole made a brief address in which he commented upon the fact that the stone was symbolical of Christ who was not only the head of the church but its foundation as well.

Comment was made by Rev. Cole that the stone itself was a gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, proprietors of the Jewell City Undertaking company, who had expressed their desire to participate in the erection of the church despite the fact that they were members of another congregation.

W. G. Boyd, contractor for the church, Robert H. Orr of Los Angeles, its architect, and Floyd Mercer, chairman of its building committee, were introduced by Rev. Cole to the congregation.

BOY SCOUT TROOPS WILL CELEBRATE 12TH BIRTHDAY

No Public Demonstration on Account of Expense; Big Progress Is Reported

Boy Scout troops of Glendale and vicinity are completing arrangements for the celebration of the American Boy Scouts' twelfth anniversary, which will be held February 8 to 12. No public demonstrations have been planned on account of the expense. Celebrations by the various Glendale, Burbank, Verdugo, Sunland, Montrose, Eagle Rock and La Crescenta Boy Scout troops under the direction of the Scoutmaster will be held at their troop headquarters.

Mr. Benner expressed keen satisfaction over the progress made in financing the organization for the year. In part, he said:

More Stock to Sell

"More than 200 shares of stock have been purchased, leaving about 250 to be sold to meet our budget for the present fiscal year. We hope to be able to sell 100 shares at Burbank and fifty in Eagle Rock, leaving another 100 shares to be sold in Glendale. The finance committee reports that they are confident they will meet with success."

Plans are completed for holding a mass meeting at Burbank Friday night. An effort will be made at this meeting to raise $1000 through the sale of stock.

The first Boy Scout troop of Eagle Rock was organized last night by Executive Benner and Scoutmaster F. O. Rentsch of Eagle Rock. Thirty applications were considered from which two patrols of eight men each were selected to form the nucleus of the organization in that city. All applicants will be taken into the organization at Eagle Rock as soon as a foundation is established by the present organized troops. Ray Sanders and Fred Schnoor, veteran scouts of Eagle Rock, were appointed assistant scoutmasters.

Where He Will Be

The itinerary of Executive Benner is announced as follows:

Monday—Office day (Glendale), hours 9 to 12, 1 to 5:30.

Tuesday—Burbank day — Phone Burbank 247-J, Mr. Collins.

Wednesday—Eagle Rock day—Phone Garvanza 1, Mr. Harwood.

Thursday—Glendale day — Phone Glendale 2205-R—(office hours).

Friday—Miscellaneous — (No set place)—Phone Glendale 408.

Saturday—Publicity and planning (Glendale), regular hours.

CURE FOR NERVOUS TROUBLES TOPIC BY DR. FUNK

Correct Bad Habits, Learn to Do Well, Diseases Will Leave, Says Pastor

"A Cure for Nervous Troubles" was the topic of Dr. H. C. Funk last night at the Lutheran church.

"In order that we may have physical freedom from disease, it is important that we shall have mental and spiritual liberty, also," declared Rev. Funk. "The greatest preacher the world has ever had was also its greatest physician. Man is a physical, mental and spiritual being, so, when we say that man is sick or diseased, we imply that there is a lack of poise or lack of ease, mentally, physically or spiritually.

"In the second chapter of Mark we read, 'And they came unto Him bringing one sick of the palsy.' The patient described in the above quotation was afflicted with a dreadful nervous malady. The doctors had utterly failed to do anything for him but the Saviour cured him and did it instantly. His fame soon spread throughout the region. All the city gathered at the door of Simon and Andrew, where Peter's wife's mother lay sick of a fever. The lame, the halt, the blind, yes, all manners of diseases were brought to Him and He never lost a case.

Source of Healing Powers

"So our friends, who make much of the healing power of our holy religion are right. Indeed, if we approach the subject from the spiritual side, we shall find that Christ is the source of all healing power. He is the greatest healer of all ages and much of His time was devoted to helping and healing the sick.

"Now we have suffered for centuries by reason of a false education in the great science of the healing art. Poisonous drugs never did and never can cure any disease. The body cures itself when it is given an opportunity. We are told that knowledge is power. Then let us seek after knowledge. What we need to know is the truth and the truth shall make us free.

"The Scriptures declare that a little with contentment is great gain. Well may we say that the greatest blessing in the world is a contented mind. The delightful sensation that comes over you as you are entranced by some sweet melody or thing of beauty, the satisfaction that you find in the completion of some task well done, the pleasure that you derive in playing some favorite game is all in the mind, in the nerves that center there.

Learn How to Live

"The fountain of true happiness for which we long is within the reach of all of us. Unfortunately man must learn by bitter experience. He must be old enough to die before he begins to learn how to live. A man will readily understand that, if he would win the victory in some important physical contest, he must deny himself. But, strange to say, in the game of life, our youth cannot be made to comprehend that the same principles obtain.

"The lifegiving springs of joy of health and happiness are accessible to all of us. They are these: High ideals, good works and noble aspirations. Moreover, any hard work, disappointments and self-denial that may be met in striving after these things will be more than repaid in a comfortable old age and a life that has been worth while.

"'Oh, if it were not for my nerves. I'd be all right,' said a woman to me a few days ago. And then she continued to blame her nerves for all her troubles. The fact is that our nerves are just what we make them—a bane or a blessing. It is the function of the nervous system to register the changes that are generated in the development of the mind and body.

Rise Above Misfortunes

"Suffering is often the condition or keynote for great achievements. Homer and Milton were blind; Caryle was a dyspeptic; Pepe was a hunchback and an invalid; Herbert Spencer had a case of chronic neurosis. These men all rose above their misfortunes and left legacies of culture and refinement that will bless mankind for centuries.

"Denying its existence does not cure a disease. The pain of an injured nerve is only a danger signal. Paiin is our protector. No one has nerve trouble, who has not in some manner, mentally or physically, abused his nervous system. Nervousness simply means that something is wrong. The cause, with rare exceptions, is due to the bad habits which we ourselves have formed. It is due to our wrong way of living. Correct the bad habits, cease to do evil and learn to do well and your diseases will gradually disappear."

Using Glendale Slogan In Mail Sent East

"When you come to Glendale, California, (the fastest growing city in America) See Elrod for Bargains."

That is the inscription on the letterhead of the Elrod realty firm, 1651 Gardena avenue, since the first of November. Ronald A. Elrod stating this morning that they had seen the slogan now adopted by the Chamber of Commerce in The Glendale Evening News.

They thought that much of "the fastest growing city in America" to use it in advertising which has gone as far as New York City.

Domestic life and affection are very highly developed among wild ducks.

REV. COLES' SERMON BRINGS $4,000 IN CONTRIBUTIONS

Money Comes Without Any Solicitation; Tells About Satan in Kid Gloves

Four thousand dollars was contributed to the building fund of the Central Christian church yesterday morning without special solicitation following Rev. C. A. Cole's sermon on "An Every Member Church."

"We hear quite a good deal about the every member movement," declared Rev. Cole. "If you will turn to your Bible, you will be surprised to find this idea about 500 times. I find that, when God gave Israel manna, He did it on the every member plan. When the people built the Tabernacle, they did it on the every member plan, when we come to the New Testament, Christ gave to 'every man according to his work.' So we urge in all things an every member co-operation, a united effort along all lines. We plead for a unanimous church. It could do almost anything for Christ.

"It is a scientific fact, also a spiritual fact, that idleness is always a prelude to death. As soon as you stop the normal functions of the body it begins to wither and perish. The first recorded sentence of Jesus was: 'I must be about my father's business.' Some of you would confess to me that no work is worse than overwork. Life is not a Pullman sleeper; it is a great labor camp. The church is not an amalgamated association for the avoidance of activity; it is rather a conscientious company of perspiring co-operators. Let us leave Heaven to God but, while we are here, let us work for God for the night cometh."

"Satan in Kid Gloves" was the topic of Rev. Cole last night at the Central Christian church.

"In London at different times burglars were caught, who were wearing kid gloves," asserted Rev. Cole. "Paint takes fingermarks and dusty furniture shows thumb prints. Burglars have been convicted on such evidence. They wanted to do their work without being found out. Many a great theft has been made and no print of finger or other mark. So, many a man has been robbed of all the best that he had and no print of finger or other mark left to show it. The devil works in kid gloves.

"Satan is very particular about appearances. He can lie and steal and cheat and gamble and not have a speck on his cuff, a particle of dirt on his clothing or a scar on his hands nor bad manners.

"The anathema of God is upon the man or woman who appears to be what he or she is not at heart.

"The devil will steal the best you have and leave you apparently all right. He will rob a beautiful girl of her virtue and she will still be beautiful. He will rob a fine young man of his cleanness of heart and he still looks as clean as his unstained companion. He will rob a merchant of his integrity and people still think he is honest. Aldermen have taken money for contracts, notes and votes and still appear before their constituents open-faced as saints. There have been ministers who drank. If the devil's work showed, people would avoid it.

"People may be taken in but you will have to get up early if you want to take God in. No secret act or thought will ever escape Him. The most fatal and pathetic case is when Satan is robbing a man and the man himself is asleep and doesn't realize it."

Intermediate School Enrollment Increases

This is the first day of school for the new semester.

According to Richardson D. White, superintendent of grammar schools, educational machinery is moving smoothly beyond the fact that teachers are at their wits' end to accommodate the new pupils.

Complete enrollment figures have not come in yet, but 120 new students are in attendance at the Intermediate school which increases the enrollment there by twenty-six, as ninety-four pupils were graduated.

possibly murdered in a "love triangle" in which the slain man, a popular screen actress and a scion of a wealthy eastern family may have been implicated. The police announced that a wealthy young New Yorker, at one time reported engaged to a leading cinema star, dropped from sight the day after Taylor's body was discovered.

PAULINE FREDERICK AND SEATTLE MAN ARE MARRIED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Pauline Frederick, famous motion picture and stage star, was married Saturday night at Santa Ana to Dr. Charles Alton Rutherford of Seattle, it was learned here today.

TRIAL OF MADALYNNE OBENCHAIN IS STARTED TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Madalynne Obenchain, smiling faintly and a trifle nervous, lost the first point in her case when her trial on a charge of plotting the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, the man she claims she loved, began today before Superior Judge Reeve. Attorneys for Mrs. Obenchain began the trial with an objection to the calling of prospective jurors who were on the panel at the trial of Arthur C. Burch, Mrs. Obenchain's co-defendant in the case. They contended that the Burch case jurors had served their time and were ineligible for service in Mrs. Obenchain's trial. Deputy District Attorney Keyes submitted the question to Judge Reeve without argument and the court ruled against the defense, holding that the jurors were eligible for service.

CARDINAL RATTI CHOSEN POPE ON SEVENTH BALLOT

ROME, Feb. 6.—Cardinal Ratti, archbishop of Milan, was today elected pope of the Roman Catholic church on the seventh ballot. He is an Italian and is understood to favor reconciliation between the vatican and the state. Shortly after 12 o'clock the new pontiff—Pope Pius XI, as he will be known after he is formally crowned—stepped upon the vatican balcony fronting St. Peter's square. The vast crowd which filled the forecourt knelt in reverence to receive the papal blessing. The Italian soldiers presented arms during the ceremony. Announcement was made that the new pontiff had chosen the name of Pius XI and he will be known by this title so long as he occupies the chair of St. Peter's. Each cardinal in the conclave is supposed to have chosen in his own mind the name he will be officially known by, so that in the event of election he can make it known at once. The act of the new pontiff in blessing the public crowd was generally accepted as an indication that his policy will be conciliatory toward the Italian government. Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, who had arrived at Naples at daybreak, hastened to Rome by special train, but arrived too late to participate in the final ballot. After the cardinal tellers had counted the votes cast in the seventh ballot, ascertaining that Cardinal Ratti had secured the necessary two-thirds majority, announcement was made. Cardinal Ratti, in response to the perfunctory question, said he accepted office. After Cardinal Ratti had stated the name by which he wished to be known, the masters of ceremonies lowered the canopies upon all the cardinals' chairs except that occupied by the pope-elect. After the new pontiff had donned the papal robes the other cardinals paid their "first obedience." The cardinal chamberlain then temporarily placed the fisherman's ring upon the pontiff's finger. It will be removed so that the pope's name can be engraved upon it and it will be placed upon the papal finger at the time of the coronation.

The Biggest Thing in Our Business is Service

When we say we're here to serve you we mean more than just looking at your battery, putting in a little water and saying goodbye.

Service, the way we say it, means doing everything we possibly can to see that you get every last mile and fraction of a mile out of that battery.

That's our business!

Never mind if your battery isn't a Willard. We'll look after it just as faithfully as if it were. We want you to know what service at Battery Headquarters is like!

THAT'S ALL

Others' Sewer Problems
China Wins Great Victory
"A Busy Business"—Sure
Do You Buy to Build?

By Gil A. Cowan

COMMENTING on the sewage disposal problem, the Southwest builder and Contractor of Los Angeles says, in part:

"Sewage disposal appears to be the big problem in all the rapidly growing cities of Southern California. Los Angeles must have additional sewage disposal facilities at once. A special election will be called by the city council to vote on issuing $4,000,000 bonds to build two big intercepting sewers and treatment plants. This is the alternative recommended by the special sewage disposal commission, as the result of the defeat at the last municipal election, of the $12,000,000 bond issue for a new outfall to the ocean.

"Neighboring beach cities have fussed with Los Angeles for years over the ocean outfall at Hyperion. Now they are objecting to Los Angeles discharging effluent from treated sewage into Ballona creek which runs around the north end of the Baldwin hills through the salt marshes to the ocean at Playa del Rey.

"But all these cities and others have their problem of sewage disposal looming big just now, the same as Los Angeles. Venice has been ordered by the state board of health to cease polluting her own beach. Hermosa Beach, too, has been advised by skilled engineers how to solve her sewage disposal problem, but some Hermosa Beach citizens are objecting to the cost and urging a less expensive scheme.

"Culver City has voted $75,000 bonds for a sewer system and will treat its sewage by the same process which Los Angeles proposes to use, the activated sludge.

"Nothing is to be gained by the bickering over sewage disposal. Sewage must go somewhere and it will continue to go either into natural drainage courses or the ocean. If the neighboring beach cities threatened less and co-operated more the situation would be less difficult for all. Since there are no remote water courses into which sewage can be discharged all the cities between the mountains and the sea must in time recognize that sewage disposal into the ocean is the only logical solution of the problem in view of the great population which must be served. Sewage farms may do for small communities but they can never serve a million or more people in a restricted area.

In the closing hours of the disarmament conference China won one of the greatest moral victories ever accomplished peacefully. And new light is thrown on Japan as a country favoring conciliation! Indeed, Americans must admire the diplomats who agreed to decisions of the conferees, both favorable and unfavorable to the Orientals' interests.

Following are the parley's seven important accomplishments in the Far Eastern situation which it is hoped will make for more amicable relations between the great powers on the Pacific:

First—Approved a nine-powered treaty pledging the powers to strict observance of the open door, and to respect the territorial, political and administrative integrity of China.

Second—Approved a nine-powered Chinese tariff treaty, designed to grant China tariff increases so that she may get back on her feet financially.

Third—Approved a four-powered supplement treaty to the Pacific treaty, which definitely takes Japan proper out of the provisions of that pact.

Fourth—Accepted Japan's renunciation of part of the 21 demands, and her promise not to press the other part to the detriment of other powers' commercial interests.

Fifth—Adopted a declaration, aimed at better preservation of the Chinese Eastern Railway and a continuance of international control.

Sixth—Accepted Japan's declaration of peaceful intent toward Siberia and her promise to withdraw Japanese troops as soon as a stable government is set up in Russia.

Seventh—Approved the creation of an international board of reference in China to which disputed points between nations of this conference can be referred for action.

An editorial writer in the Dallas, Texas, News, says a mouthful when he refers to the publication of a daily paper as "A Busy Business." Here are his ideas on the subject:

"Being in the newspaper business means being busy. The work is never over within a newspaper office. The news is never all in, the type is never all distributed, the mail is never all delivered before new news has to be handled, new types have to be set, new mails dispatched.

"When a person has a job in a newspaper office he need never be unemployed. He can work his silly self to death if he wants to. Moreover, the number of people employed in a newspaper office, great or small, is limited only by the earning capacity of the establishment. There is so much for everybody to do that whenever a little profit appears on the balance sheets new names appear on the pay roll. This is as true of the New York Apogee as of the Hickory Hill Herald.

"Being in the newspaper business means to wonder if the army of the unemployed is as miserable a place as it is represented to be. Not to have something to do that must be done on schedule time does not seem to a newspaper man a condition of extreme shirk."

Hundreds of home makers purchased vacant property here yesterday from the dozens of subdividers who were displaying their lots under the unusually favorable conditions.

It is estimated that no less than 10,000 visitors were attracted to Glendale by the burst of newspaper advertising of the week-end.

And some wonderful investments are awaiting the person who intends building, for really it is the builder that makes things worth while in any new tract.

Constance Binney in 'Room and Board' on Glendale Screen

Picture patrons have seen little Miss Constance Binney in a variety of roles, but in "Room and Board," playing today at the Glendale theatre, she is a delightful Irish heroine. In conjunction with other pictures, it provides delightful amusement for the whole family. The story in brief follows:

Lady Noreen of Kildoran is the last of her family, and very, very poor, indeed. The estate has dwindled until little remains but the castle, badly in need of repairs, and one or two horses in the once famous stables.

The gallant young noblewoman even sells her own hunter. But even the sum she receives for the horse will not suffice to meet her needs, chief of which is the interest on the castle mortgage. What to do, as they say in France.

Being brave as well as proud, Lady Noreen does what countless other impoverished women have done in a crisis. She resolves to take a paying guest at the castle, and lands a wealthy American who is keen about Irish customs, and local color. Lady Noreen poses as one of the few castle servants, and the American is told that the Lady Noreen is traveling in France. So, of course, oyu can imagine what happened.

Legal and Real Estate Business by New Frim

W. T. Johnson and Bernard Keiser, both of whom are Hoosiers, are now located in their new office in the Ralphs building, West Broadway and Orange.

Mr. Johnson recently transferred his membership in the Indiana bar to California and the firm is now prepared to do a general legal and real estate business. It will handle insurance of all kinds, also.

It is just a great story—well produced—remarkable for its touch of human characterization and played by a cast of artists. It is one of the best pictures presented in Glendale and one the management of the T. D. L. theatre, where it will be shown for the last times today, are proud to exhibit.

A lengthy discussion of the plot, settings and general composition of the production is not necessary—suffice it to repeat, "Stardust" is by far a picture away out of the ordinary and one that contains those necessary qualifications that characterize "big" productions. If you were not one of the hundreds who witnessed its presentation yesterday you missed a wonderful performance—however, it will be shown again today. See it. It is a picture you will remember—talk about and be glad you saw it, says Manager Allan.

It ranks with "Humoresque" its predecessor which, as is generally ing that lovers of the ridiculous shed known, has been considered one of the best pictures ever produced. The audiences of yesterday laughed themselves hoarse at the comedy, "Free and Easy" a riot of fun making that made lovers of the ridiculous shed tears of laughter.

The selection "Vamping Rose," by George Olsene, organist, pleased everyone. Tonight Mr. Olsene will play "Humoresque" by request—this being the night that he will play selections especially requested by patrons. Tomorrow the T. D. & L. theatre will present America's foremost actor Lionel Barrymore in "Boomerang Bill."

TIMES DO CHANGE

The price we are asking for the northeast corner of Central and Hawthorne, 95x135, is the best investment that we have offered for some time. This property is in the direct path of development, adjoining property that is valued at more than double the price we are asking. We will sell this for the next ten days at a very low figure in lots from 25 feet frontage on Central to the full size of 135 feet. Will also consider a long time lease on same, or will build to suit tenant. This is a business proposition pure and simple that should not be overlooked as development all around necessitates a readjustment of prices in the near future. Liberal terms will be extended to responsible parties. Give this serious thought at once. Will accept high class house in trade.

PROPOSE FOOTHILL DRIVE

Another beautiful foothill drive leading out of Glendale may become a reality if the Eagle Rock Chamber of Commerce succeeds with present plans. Hill drive, which swings around the Verdugo foothills from Pasadena and enters this city through the Eagle Glen Heights tract being opened by J. Harvey McCarthy, is the road that Eagle Rock boosters want to see completed. It is stated that rights-of-way have been deeded by all the foothill property owners.

The WORLD OVER
By FRANKLIN B. MORSE.
PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The 218 mile dog team race from Dauphin, Manitoba, to Winnipeg, Canada to be run in connection with the Winnipeg winter carnival, February 6 to 11 furnishes one of the few events of its kind in the country, based on the famous Nome, Alaska dog race of by-gone days when the drivers raced for money purses which ran into the ten thousand dollars.

The La Pas, Manitoba race is another event of the same character, and Ishton, Idaho ran a like event during 1921. All of them call for, not only endurance on the part of both men and dogs, but this element of endurance passes into the borderline of a certain self infliction of pain, brought about by the strain, the cold and sleeplessness.

So much so is this the case that humanitarians have voiced a protest against the events. While these humane organizations admit that men are entitled to do as they please in the matter of enduring unnecessary hardships, they have no right to involve the dogs, which are helpless in the matter.

The great dog races of Nome, known as the all-Alaska Sweepstakes, had its inception in 1908 under the auspices of the Nome Kennel club which was organized in that year with Albert Fink as its first president. The winter season there extends from the departure of the last boat of the open season late in October, to the arrival of the first boat early in June. During this time the people of northwestern Alaska are cut off from the rest of the world by a barrier of over a thousand miles of snow and ice. The only communication with the outside was through means of occasional dog teams.

Some diversion was necessary and, where the dog has always been indispensable, it was only natural that this animal should have been included in practically the only big sporting event that was available. While the race itself occupied five days in the running, interest in the event furnished entertainment for many weeks in advance of the affair. It was food for gossip at the clubs, stores and homes, and thousands of dollars were waged on the outcome.

There also were other races such as the Fort Davis races and the Solomon Derby which, however, were not as long as the All-Alaska sweepstakes. With the gradual dwindling of the population in the northwest of Alaska, these races have either been abandoned altogether, ar they are mere ghosts of the events as they were run in their heyday.

While the Winnipeg race calls for not less than four dogs and not more than six, the Alaskan races included a dozen or more of the animals. It was one of the rules that every dog must be returned over the finish line, whether dead or alive. In the event of a dog giving out from exhaustion, it became necessary for the driver to place the animal on his sled and bring it home in order to be eligible to win the prize.

The course was over 450 miles of desolate and frozen tundra. There were certain stations where the men might rest for brief periods and get some snatches of sleep.

Miss Ann Cookman, Bride - Elect, Honor Guest at Shower

Miss Ann Cookman, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Cookman, of 638 North Louise street, and whose engagement to Earl Thomson of Dartmouth college was recently announced in The Glendale Evening News, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. C. Wells of Gertrude street, Los Angeles, by a group of young women who have been associated with Miss Cookman in school work at Whittier. This was in the nature of a surprise party and when Miss Cookman was called to the door to receive a package she thought it was a gift from her mother in celebration of her birthday anniversary which had occurred last week. The package contained an assortment of beautiful and useful gifts. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Melvin R. Cline Gives Luncheon Party

Mrs. Melvin R. Cline of 332 West Burchett street entertained Saturday with a dainty three course "blue and white" luncheon. The place cards bore hand painted blue birds, signifying happiness. The affair was also a happy reunion of old friends all of whom were once connected with business at the Hall of Records. Those present were Mrs. Harry Welch, Mrs. Bert Williamson, Mrs. Ella King, Mrs. Belle Spence, Mrs. Beth Wright, Mrs. Edwin Lucas Mrs. Jess Lewis, Miss Margaret Bean, Miss Emily Macpherson, Miss Billy Etter, Miss Ora David; Mrs. Cline was assisted by Mrs. Welch.

ENJOYED FROLIC IN SNOW

A group of fifteen Y. M. C. A. grammar school boys, accompanied by Rex C. Kelley, enjoyed a trip to Mt. Wilson Saturday, leaving here about 7 o'clock in the morning and returning the latter part of the afternoon. Several of the boys had never before been in the snow and greatly enjoyed making snow men and sleighing down the canyons. A group of Hi-Y boys left Saturday morning at 5 o'clock for Mt. Baldy and also report a fine time. The group of Y. M. C. A. boys which meets under the leadership of W. P. Potter is planning to entertain their parents tonight at the First Presbyterian church.

P. E. MAXWELL IS BETTER

Perry E. Maxwell of 129 Burchett street, who recently underwent a mastoid operation at the Glendale Research Hospital, is improving.

Mrs. O. O. Clark Home Chapter Meeting Scene

The all-day meeting of Chapter BA, P. E. O., which was held Friday at the home of Mrs. O. O. Clark, 346 North Louise street, proved to be a most delightful and entertaining occasion. A surprise was given the members when Miss Carol Willisford announced her coming marriage to Robert Kolts, which will take place in Los Angeles on Wednesday. After her marriage she and her husband are planning to leave for a six months' visit with her parents, Reverend and Mrs. E. H. Willisford of Houston, Tex., formerly of Glendale. A farewell party will be given in her honor Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Arnold.

The philanthropic work at Friday's meeting was a book shower for the County Hospital. After a delicious luncheon at noon an interesting program, in charge of Miss Dorothy Williams was given, and included a very interesting paper read by her on "Pompeii." There were about twenty members present. Special guests included Mrs. Charles Blanchard and Mrs. Albert Pearce. Mrs. Clark was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Kate Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth Brown.

Jarvis Earl Fined $35 for Traffic Violations

Jarvis Earl, scoin of the Earl estate and resident of La Canada, was fined $35 this morning in Police Judge F. H. Lowe's court for making 39 miles an hour on Glendale avenue and "conspiring to evade" Motorcycle Officer Walter Trautwein.

A number of other prominent citizens contributed $15 apiece, the average fine having been boosted by Judge Lowe, who insists that Glendalians must modify their pace.

Twenty-four arrests were made yesterday afternoon when motorists ignored the traffic officer's signals at San Fernando road and Brand boulevard.

TEACHERS TO HEAR TALK

In order that the teachers of the city may avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing the talk to be given at the open-forum meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club at Masonic Temple tomorrow afternoon by Dr. E. C. Moore, president of the southern branch of the University of California, whose topic will be "The Pan-Pacific Educational Conference," the time for this lecture has been set for 3:30. Preceding this there will be a social hour and short business meeting.

MRS. MORROW IS HOSTESS

Mrs. Ray L. Morrow of 1209 North Brand boulevard entertained at two tables of bridge Friday, her guests including Mrs. Howard Shepherd of Los Angeles, Mrs. W. H. Quinn, Mrs. H. Hoedinghaus, Miss Eleanor Mack, Mrs. O. J. Merrill, Miss Blanche Davenport and Mrs. Reaves of Glendale.

PLAN SOCIAL AFTERNOON

The Ladies' Aid of the Pacific Avenue Methodist church are planning a social afternoon Wednesday for all strangers and those interested in the church. There will be a program and social afternoon, during which refreshments will be served.

Japanese women usually begin smoking when about ten years old.

Interesting Sermon Is Delivered Sunday By Rev. Edmonds

A large congregation was in attendance yesterday morning at the Presbyterian church.

"Philippi was a little city over in Greece important as a garrison of the great Roman over-lords," declared Rev. W. E. Edmonds. "It will be forever famous as the place where the first church in Europe was organized by Paul.

"The keythought of Paul's epistle to the Philippians is: The joy of the redeemed through the humiliation of the redeemer. The wonderful keyverse is : 'For me to live in Christ.' It is the epistle of joy. In the opening verses of the fourth chapter are the choicest ingredients of the fruit of the spirit—love, joy, peace and sweetness. Here is Paul's love to his dear friends; here is his pleas that two good but disagreeing women shall 'be of the same mind in the Lord.'

"We may not always rejoice in circumstances, feelings or even friends but always we can rejoice in the Lord. Probably among us are some very heavy experiences this week. Nevertheless, 'all things work together for good' and we glory in tribulation, also.

"There never has been an ideal Christian in the world—not one has ever lived. Only one could say, 'Follow me.' Yet it is a sin not to have an ideal and to fail to press forward.

"Along with joy Paul speaks of 'moderation,' meaning a temperate spirit, yielding, gentle, sweet. Some people exhibit such on special occasions like a beautiful garment. But show it forth in obscure places and show it to your enemies.

"Now he goes on to 'peace.' The most wonderful legacy, 'My peace I leave with you.' The peace of Christ comes into the 'within life' where no storm can touch and passeth all understanding. We can't explain it and it saves from anxious care.

"When you have put your trust in Christ, then, if he falls, you will fall not before. Quit your worrying; come what may, nothing can really touch you. And peace will help you in your prayer life. 'In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.'

"The great closing is like the climax of an anthem: 'The peace of God shall keep your hearts and minds.' Strangely 'keep' is a military word—it means a garrison. Those people of Philippi knew the power of safety in a Roman garrison. This peace of God is a garrison containing food, supplies, safety, everything."

Deaths and Funerals

FRANK J. REAGAN

Friends of Frank J. Reagan, who formerly resided on West Patterson avenue, were shocked to read accounts of his sudden death in Los Angeles Friday. While standing in an office of the Southern California Edison company he drew a revolver from his hip pocket and shot himself in the head. He was rushed to a hospital where death followed a few hours later. The deceased was 37 years of age and had suffered a nervous breakdown while serving in the ministry. He moved to Glendale about two years ago and built a home which he sold when employed by the Southern California Edison company at a substation in the vicinity of Monrovia.

ROBERT JACK

From the Morrison, Ill., Whiteside Sentinel, it is learned that Robert Jack, father of Dr. Jessie A. Russell of this city, died at his country home near there, Wednesday, January 25, at the age of 80 years. He is survived by a widow and five children. He was buried in Oakville cemetery.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the musky mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Advertisement.

high privileges in high school opportunities and I hope every one of you will embrace those opportunities by starting to high school Monday morning."

Insurance for Success

Mr. Hibben appealed to the parents present to see that their children got the best possible education as the only insurance for the success in life.

"Your children are your richest gifts," stated Mr. Hibben. "If they fail, you are ruined."

"Glendale, the city of the future," was the topic of Evelyn Sullivan.

"It may seem strange for a grammar school student to speak upon this subject," she remarked, "but won't we be the citizens of the future?"

She called attention to the fact that the city limits already comprise twelve square miles and that there is plenty more good land to be annexed. She paid a tribute to L. C. Brand's sagacity in inducing the Pacific Electric to come to the San Fernando Valley and inquired where else could be found such a desirable, pleasant place to live. She commented upon the accessibility of the Los Angeles Harbor, the prosperity of the walnut and citrus groves.

Sees Great Future

"The many schools we already have and the schools we are about to build predict a brilliant future," declared Evelyn. "The schools we already have rank high. The new Broadway school is a sample and the new high school will be a credit to the community.

"Soon Glendale will be a city of 50,000 and one of the best known cities in the United States."

"Andalusia," an old Spanish song, was sung by Inez Fitzgerald and a chorus of girls from the gradating class. The violin obligato was played by Lavinia Thede.

The girls' glee club sang two numbers, "Birds are Singing" by Thomas and "Recessional" by DeKoven. Eugene Kille played a violin solo, "Petite Valse" by Dancla.

The program concluded with the expression of best wishes to the graduates.

Now At High School

Glendale Union High School this morning received about 103 new pupils from the local grammar school system.

State law provides that children must continue in school until 16 years of age unless excused for a special reason.

This morning they are trying to get adjusted to high school life and reconciled to the fact that they who had been first were now last in school rank.

Owing to the similarity between Intermediate and high school schedules, most of them were able to find their classes without getting lost in the corridors.

A list of the "scrubs" follows:

Academy of Music Announces Opening of School Semester

The California Academy of Music on North Brand boulevard has just announced the opening of its second semester and classes are now forming for the spring session. The management says this young institution has made a most remarkable record.

When the academy opened its doors the management promised the residents of Glendale an institution such as is possessed by few cities in America, and it is gratifying to note that they are succeeding.

Headed by business men and possessed of a faculty of talented musicians, the California Academy of Music has demonstrated what it can do in a most successful manner, parents of pupils agree.

New Income Tax Laws Told in This Booklet

Married life during 1921 was worth $500 more than in 1920, according to the internal revenue department of the United States government.

Herman Nelson, manager of the Glendale Avenue branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank, today called attention to the fact that exemption for families, under the income tax law, has been increased from $2000 to $2500, and that the exemption for each child under 18 has been increased from $200 to $400.

A booklet giving in condensed form the regulations of the new income tax law has been prepared by the Los Angeles Trust and Savings bank and is now ready for distribution to those who wish to ask for it.

Rommel Construction Concern Gets Contract

F. McG. Kelley announced Saturday that the contract for the construction of his store and flat building on North Brand boulevard had been awarded to the Rommel Construction company of Glendale. The building will be erected at a cost of approximately $25,000.

Construction of the building will begin immediately as the entire lower floor has been leased to a group of New York merchants who are planning on establishing a department store in Glendale.

Joe Fortunato was given the contract to install the tile.

Illinois People Will Picnic Next Saturday

Former residents of the state of Illinois, now visiting or residing in Glendale, have been urged to attend the annual all-day basket picnic and reunion in Lincoln park, Los Angeles, February 11, given under the auspices of the Illinois State Society of Southern California.

Celebrated Illinoisans will take part in the program according to James A. Tomlison, president of the society. Those who attend will be expected to bring well filled lunch baskets, cups and spoons. In case of rain the picnic will be postponed one week.

NEW PLATFORM FOR CHURCH ENDORSED BY METHODISTS

Morning and Evening Given Over to Discussion of Recent Conference

fice to extend the work of the kingdom to all parts of the country.

"The needs of the church and the world demand a larger participation of laymen in the work of the church. We urge that our laymen be given worth-while tasks and trained to meet the larger opportunities of the kingdom. The place of the church is in the forefront of human affairs. Our brotherhoods should urge their members to take an active interest in public affairs.

"That we may rear a generation of strong, thoroughly trained Christians capable of doing the work of the kingdom we urge our church schools to the standards of our public schools. We recommend that buildings as well as schools shall be properly equipped; that a definite plan for religious training in the home be devised, especially that family worship and Bible reading be restored; that we set as our goal for this year a ten per cent increase in enrollment and a seventy-five per cent increase in attendance. We believe that our greatest opportunity for enlisting life is before us in our summer institutes but we are convinced that the appeal for life service should be presented as early as the high school age.

To Do Work of Evangelist

"It is urged that we major on evangelism. Let men and communities be called to repentance and good works with the fearless vigor of gospel truth. Let every pastor consider himself called of God to do the work of the evangelist. It is recommended that the pastor conduct a training class for personal work in soul winning.

"We urge that our churches abandon all 'catch as catch can' financial systems and get their feet firmly and officially planted on the foundation of the tithe.

"We recommend that earnest appeal be made to every defender of law and order to support the Wright bill in order that California law enforcement machinery be brought into co-operation with the federal government in suppressing violations of the Eighteenth Amendment.

"We rejoice in the continued progress of the University of Southern California, which is now the third largest school of Methodism and commend the purpose to add $5,000,000 to the funds of the university at the earliest practical time.

"We are in sympathy with the plan to raise the necessary funds to build a nurses' home for the Methodist Hospital of Southern California.

Ladies' Aid Societies

"Recognizing the great contribution of the Ladies' Aid Societies to the life of the church we recommend that they develop their work in spiritual as well as social and financial activities. We recognize the great value of the Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in promoting the work of the Centenary. We not only commend their work and their value as organizations to our churches but rely upon the help of their individual members in all the missionary work of Methodism.

"Centenary funds have enabled the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension greatly to enlarge its work. In the first success of the Centenary a greater amount of new work was undertaken than can now be conveniently completed but the advance has been so great, the benefits so pronounced and the future so bright that we thank God and take courage.

"We follow the leadership of Christ. If our churches really catch the vision of Calvary, we shall go forward to unprecedented heights of achievement."

Mrs. Strong of Iowa at E. M. Kennedy Home

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kennedy of 1010 East Lomita avenue, are entertaining Mrs. Strong, of Osceola, Iowa, an aunt of Mr. Kennedy. Mrs. Strong will be their guest for the rest of the winter. Saturday afternoon, Mr. Kennedy, Mrs. Strong, Earleen Kennedy, Ralph and Helen Stanley, motored to Los Angeles and spent a very interesting afternoon at Exposition Park.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED WITH SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.—Advertisement.
